When a man has been snatched, as it were from the very jaws of death, and given a new lease of healthy life by means of a simple remedy, it is natural for him to be enthusiastic In his praise of the means which delivered him from deadly peril. Mr. B. H. Byrd, who is the postmisster at Lady Lake, Sumter county, Fla. as well as a leading merchant of that place. under date of May 4, 1887, writes:

under date of May 4, 1887, writes; GENTLEMEN; Allow me to congratulate and return thanks for the wonderful success your E. S. S. has proved in my case. You remember about a year ago! I wrote you in reference to about a year ago I wrote you in reference to my case. I was treated by three skillful physicians, but with no relief. I suffered a great deal of uneasiness, besides a great deal of uneasiness, besides a great deal of onlin. I must say that the contents of one dozen bottles of S. S. Bending for Last Place-Indianapolis Only Three Games Behind Them-Boston and Pittsburg Got Shut Out-Reports From the Turf.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Washington never had a chance to beat the White Stockings to-day. They started in to bat Gilmore from the start and kept it up until the end. The notable feature of the game was Pfoffer's fine playing on second base. President Spalding now hopes to play the three postponed Chicago Booton games in Rockford on Saturday. Score:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Sept. 21.—Twenty-five humored people saw Indianapolis shut out loston to-day. For a game of close and excling play, it has not been excelled here this season. Both nitchers watened bases sharply, and if a runper tried to steal second he was almost sure to be thrown our by the catcher, so perfect was their work. The only run scored was in the sixth multiple on a two-base in the sixth multiple on a two-base in the Brown. Score:

Dr. J. B. Johnson, of Washington, has sold to L. Freeman for $115 the building lot on Patrick street, near the Lee school house.

About noon yesterday there arrived in this city from Washington a band of colored men, known as the Aucient Order of Moses, with one John H. Shanklin acting as captain general. It appears that at the corner of King street the II-year-old son of Mr. Wm. Murray chanced to get in the path of his highness in command, who immediately slashed at the juvecile offender with his aword, cutting an ugly wound upon his right leg. The acreams of the child seemed to extite his ire, and he once more wielded his sword, this time slightly disfiguring the car of little Joe West, son of Mr. West, of St. Assiph street. He then gave the command to march, and was at the head of the order of Mosesites, stepping high to the tune of the conquerer, when Valentine.

Mr. Troth, as chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported a series of resolutions, which were adopted, as follows:
Whereas the Republican parry was inaugurated in the interest of the laboring men, and has always fostered the industrial interests of the country as no other party ever has, and we stand as ever in full accord with the party and indorse both the state and unstonal platforms, and also indorse the late address of the state Republican committee to the pessie of Virginia; and further he if.

Jacob M. Thorn was then nominated as the Republican candidate for the house of delegates and chosen by acclamation, and, being present, addressed the convention briefly. Isaac P Ballwin, candidate for the senate from that district, also addressed the audience at a melength. After reading a letter from Dr. Gimer, of Richmond, Va., on the Democratic management of the state government, not at all creditable to them, he contrasted the states under Republican rule with those under Democratic rule in the past from a statistical standpoint, showing the superiority of the former in population, education, industrial progress, wealth, and everything else that goes to make a people prosperous and happy. He was followed by Hon. R. R. Mr. George W. Jones has been awarded the contract, at $331, for fixing up quarters for the mail carriers at the postoffice buildbut the best fishing grounds are in the neighborhood of Suakin, Massowah, and the Farsan Islands. The fishing fleet onsists of about 300 boats, mostly belonging to the Zobeid Bedouins, a tribe inhabiting the coast between Jeddah and Yambo. About fifty belong to Jeddah, and others to other localities. They are open boats, of from eight to twenty tons burden, with one lateen sail. The crew varies from eight to twenty tons burden, with one lateen sail. The crew varies from eight to twelve men. There are two different flashing seasons, one of four and the other of eight mouths, and during these the boats remain almost constantly at sea, except for a few weeks. The crew, consisting in great part of black slaves, receive two-thirds of the catch, deductions being made for their food; the owners of the boat keep the other third. Accidents are seldom heard of, and the divers are remarkable for their physical vigor and robust health. They range in age between 10 and 40, and the work seems to do them no harm. The flashing grounds are in the neighborhood of coral reefs, where the boats are anchored; the divers then go out in small canoes, especially imported from the Malabar coast for the purpose, and begin their work all round. It is necessary that the sea should be calm, other wise the shells cannot be seen.

For some years past the negroes have been in the habit of using old the canisters, with glass in the bottom, to enable them to see better. In the course of the past ten years the catch has fallen, but by reason of the increased price good and had shells have met with a ready, saie. The annual production varies from $120,000 to $70,000. During the last season of four months it reached only $25,000, against $40,000 to $50,000 in the corresponding periods of other years. Jeddah was formerly the sole market, but on account of the customs officials there the port only receives about a quarter of the catch now, the rest going to Suakin and Massowah. Pearls to the value of $4,000 or $5,000 are found annually; but this estimate is uncertain, as the larger and more valuable ones are soid secretly.

Smith, and others, counsel for Mary Elizabeth Levy, have made application for mandamus on Commissioner Sparks, of the general land office. She states that she was formerly Mary E. Bouligny, widow of Jno. E. Bouligny, who is named in the act of Congress of Mar. 2, 1867. This act confirmed to her and her children one-sixth of the land claim of Jeon Antoine Bernard D'Autrove in Louisians, said sixth part being 5,840 acres, and inasmuch as said land was already appropriated, that certificates of new location of Scharre lots be issued to her, to be located at any land office apon lands subject to private entry at a price not exceeding $1.25 per acre.

March 6, 1867, she filed a copy of the act with the commissioner of the land office and requested the issue of the certificates. She states that on March 30, 1867, a joint resolution was passed by Congress directing the Secretary of the Interior to suspend the execution of esid set until further orders. and others, counsel for Mary Elizabeth

The mother-of-pearl shells are sold at public auction in Jeddah in lots of about fifty pounds. Ten years ago all that came on the market at Jeddah was shipped off in Arab vessels to Suez, whence it was sent to Cairo, where it was sold. At present the greater part is sent to Trieste, the rest going to Havre and London. The largest sad most perfect and beautiful shells are purchased by traders from Bethlehem, who take them home and cut them and sell them to pitgrius. Jeddah shells are less valued in Europa than those of Suskin and Massowah because of their yellow tinge. In an ordinary lot of shills, as sold in the market, 9 per cent will be large, 20 per cent medium sized, 35 per cent small medium, 10 per cent small. 22 per cent dead or cracked, and 6 per cent. will consist of impurities and coralloid marble. Some years since a therman attempted pearl fishing with a fleet manned by Greeks, but as the experiment was never remewed, it is to be presumed that it was a failure.

MAN'S FORGETFULNESS. When it Becomes Time for Labor

Unions to Reorganize. "Funny, isn't it, how men band themselves together for mutual protection and advancement, and then forget what they owe to each other." Inis remark was made by a union printer to a reporter last night. "What's gone wrong," asked the scribe? "Not much." was the typo's reply; "it's only a little thing, but it shows up another of our inconsistencies. Here's a card of invitation to an open session of Local Assembly 4020, K of L, and while I have seen worse specimens of printing this one is bad enough; it has numerous errors in it, and is a piece of work that any decent printer would be ashamed of. Now
I think when an assembly of the K of L, forsakes its colaborers and gives its printing to a low-grade boy amateur or to some "Funny, isn't it, how men band theming to a low-grade boy amateur or to some chesp 'cock-robin' shop it's time for a reorganization somewhere,"

Encouraging Church Attendance. Maj. S. H. Walker conducted a mass meeting at the chapel corner North Capitol and K streets last evening, the gathering and K streets last evening, the gathering being under the auspitess of the evangelization committee of Northeast Washington. The object of the meeting was to consider means for the encouragement of church attendance. The holding of "cottage meetings," which are regular prayer meetings, held chiefly at the homes of those prominent in the movement, was considered one of the fruitful ways to lead people to the altar, many attending them who would not go in a church.

Proud of Her.

[Philadelphia News.] "Yes," said Mr. Smirk to a young man who had ventured to praise his daughter's appearance to him, "yes, her mother and I sometimes presume to consider her rather a fine figure. Speaking as a person with an eye for art, I may, perhaps, be permitted to suggest that her outline is graceful and correct. I am naturally proud to have a daughter who is constructed upon the best models."

VARIATIONS OF THE MARKET. Activity and Duliness, With Spells of Strength and Weakness. NEW YORK, Sept. 21 .- The stock market o-day was alightly less setive than on vosterday, but was equally subject to sudden changes from activity to duliness, and from trength to weakness. The activity was most noticeable during the weak spells in most bottecable during the weak spoils in the forewoon, and later in the day during the strong periods. The bears attacked the list, and with marked success. The weak-ness was intensified after the small amount of bonds offered became known, but a bet-ter feeling prevailed later and the bulls as-sumed company. The amountment of timed command. The announcement of the small offerings of bonds to the Treas the small offerings of bonds to the Treasury Department caused a rush to sell by the bears, which, notwithstanding the resistance offered by the purchases for foreign account and the more influential room traders, forced prices down sharply for a short time. The oversold condition of the market is shown by the fact that most of the active stocks loan at a premium for use.

Under the influence of a more hopeful feeling and purchases by the foreigners prices were materially higher at the openfor, advances ranging up to i per cent for, advances ranging up to i per cent The improvement was quickly lost, how ever, the market being weak from the open The improvement was quickly lost, however, the market being weak from the opening; heavy losses were sustained by some of the specialties. The market railied, recovered most of the loss, but again became weak and active before neon, and from § to §§ per cent. was knocked off of values. The decline received an impetus after 13 o'clock, and the lowest figures generally were reached by $12.30 when a decidedly strong tone marked the dealings and prices rose rapidly until near 2 o'clock when a quiet period occurred. At the close the market was active and strong at the best prices of the day.

Money on call has been active, ranging from 3 to $\tilde{\text{0}}_1$ last loan at 5, and closing offered at 5. Sterling exchange is feverish and lower. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE COMMOPOLITAN, September, Moents, $2 a year, New York; Schricht & Field Co, Publishers. An extraordinary frontispiece, "Sumper tive and surprising.

"Uncle Mason's Money" is an admirable story. Of course. It was written by Harriet Prescott Spofford. The "New Light on an Oid Mystery," being the case of Kaspar Hanser, sixty years ago the talk of all Europe, will invite those who are fond of guessing. Should anything be determined, they will please let us know.

"Millionaires of the Pacific Coast," with their portrails, a grim set, who never admired a rainbow, a flower, a happy culid, awfully practical and severe, yet attil the world's benefactors—poor tellows!—follows: recounting the wonders they effected, without thought, meanwhile, save for themselves. It is well there is a wise power above, which direct seven such blind men to act in a way that they serve as guides and benefactors to their rase.

"Charles Summer" is pleasantly described, with portrait, his "study," and fac simile of letters.

After some agreeable stories, "The Hurricane Island," with its beautiful drawings, will reward the reader for his best attention. Then we find, "Shall America Havo Ambassandors?" which we answer negatively, but you may reply "yes" or "no." It is only necessary to read four pages and think a good wnife.

There are several poems. One of them is well written. It is "Three Seore and Ten." But we, with some experience, pronounce it atterly faile in sentiment, save for one who, born a fool, necessarily becomes more a fool as he grows old.

CHEER. September. 19 cents; $1 a year, Philadelphia: Cheer Company, 1917, Wal-nut street, 'Publishers, Its frontispiece is "Caged Mischief." A small boy, scated, holds a trap tenanted by a mouse, a small girl stands before him, a mouse, a small girl stands before him, bearing an eagerly expectant cat. The boy smiles upon his captive, pues will devour it presently, and the girl seems to have no objection. We would give our week's salary for the liberation of the poor prisoner.

But a good article follows under the same title, wherein the writer objects to poisoned buns, and, indeed, to poison being introduced into any portion of his food and beverage, suggesting that laws exist which might and should stop the "mischief;" the perpetrators to be "caged."

might and should stop the "mischief;" the perpetrators to be "caged."

"The Cat Club Papers," dramatic and dinner devoted, are, as usual, the great feature of the magazine. A savory seasoning of wit and humor.

"The Plain Cook," "Aboard Ship," and "A Tale of a Bottle" are tanciful, sensible, and interesting in their various ways. Let every householder enter "The Kitchen," stay there long, and learn much.
